Amman City Orientation Half Day Tour (4 Hours): The current and ancient capital of Jordan, Amman is a modern city with many conveniences; It is a good base for touring Jordan, visit both the old (Amphitheater, Citadel and Souq) and new parts of the city, Amman is steeped in biblical history known as the capital of the Ammonites as Rabbath Ammon, and as Philadelphia in the Roman rule, it became the southern Greco-Roman city of the Decapolis. A Roman amphitheater with capacity of 8000 spectators. The citadel which still standing with its columns & numerous Roman-Byzantine & Islamic remains. Excavations showed that Amman goes back 9,000 years from Neolithic - Roman- Greco - Byzantine to Islamic .Remains of churches & Umayyad Palace, The Archaeological museum with some of Dead Sea scrolls & Islamic treasures and the Popular Traditions museum.
Day 2: Amman -Petra- Amman	(B, L, D)
Petra Full Day Tour (10 Hours, 3 hours driven- 240KM, estimate 2- 3 hours inside Petra (2 hours serve by Petra local guide) and 3 hours return to Amman) : the famous rock city, is located in the south of Jordan, and was created by the Nabataean Arabs. Since 1985 Petra belongs to the World Heritage Sites and since 2007 it is one of the New Seven Wonders of the World. The Nabateans settled here more than 2000 years ago and carved temples, tombs and houses in the red rose sandstone. When this nomadic Arabs showed up on the historical stage is not clear, the first definite historical mention of them is in 312 BC. They gained power through the control of the silk, spice and other trade routes that linked Asia and southern Arabia with Egypt, Syria, Greece and Rome. In the first century BC King Aretas III extended the Nabatean Empire to Damascus. Important for the Nabatean success was their ability to create a sophisticated water supply system with channels and cisterns. Petra was chosen as the capital because it was located in a valley surrounded by sandstone mountains. (Including horse ride until the Siq-800m). Visitors enter Petra through the Siq , a narrow gorge, over 1 km in length, which is flanked by 80 metres high cliffs. Just walking through the Siq is an experience in itself. The colours and formations of the rocks are dazzling. As you reach the end of the Siq you will catch your first glimpse of Al Khazneh, known as the Treasury . Its name comes from the Bedouin belief that the Pharaoh hid his treasure in the urn at the top of the Kazneh. The monument consists of a massive façade, 30 meters wide and 43 meters high, carved out of the red rose sandstone in the early 1st century, walk along the Street of Facades , lined with tall monuments, after you see on the right side the so called Royal Tombs . Climbing up stairs the Urn Tomb, the Silk Tomb with rich coloured sandstone, the Corinthian and the Palace Tomb can be found. (Remarks: Excluded Carriage ride in Petra-USD 30 for 2 persons, USD 03-05 per person for the Petra Bedouin Horse man)
